Apostle Robert L. Sanders, Sr., Presider
Greetings, in the Wonderful Name of Our Lord, Jesus,

What an honor and a privilege to serve as the Presider of such a great organization. Through collaborative efforts we come to the 96th Annual Leadership Seminar bringing together 16 departments and auxiliaries consisting of delegates traveling from the 12 Apostolic Regions across the US and countries outside of the US. We come together for spiritual enrichment, leadership and church growth training, fellowship, auxiliary and church reporting, and to finalize the Holy Convocation planning. Our ultimate goal is to advance kingdom work. As a body of believers, leadership and position training are the cornerstones of growing a ministry.

We endeavor to operate as a team and strive to transform individual thinking into collective thinking, building within all a sense of interdependence, oneness and community. Leaders understanding his or her role and building collaborative initiatives have more of a significant impact within the organization. Effective collaboration depends on effective leadership.

Lady Janice Sanders and I, look forward to seeing you at the 96th International Holy Convocation in Greensboro, North Carolina, July 22-26, 2015. The Holy Convocation will include Morning Glory Prayer, Powerful and Anointed High-Noon and Evening Worship Services, Powerful Preaching, Daily Christian Education Sessions and Special Events that will be available to all registered delegates.

Our 2013 – 2016 theme is quite simple, but yet profound; “There Remaineth Yet Very Much Land To Be Possessed” Joshua 13:1, People Matter.

Apostle Robert L. Sanders, Sr., Presider
Greetings, in the Wonderful Name of Our Lord, Jesus,

What a wonderful God we serve, who makes all things possible to those who put Him first! I have been so awesomely privileged, for such a time as this, to serve as the Presider of such a great organization. Our 2013 – 2016 theme is quite simple, but yet profound; "There Remaineth Yet Very Much Land To Be Possessed" Joshua 13:1, People Matter.

Through collaborative efforts we come to the Annual Leadership Seminar for spiritual enrichment, training, fellowship, auxiliary and church reporting, and to finalize the Holy Convocation planning. The Leadership Seminar brings together 16 department heads and auxiliaries; and is attended by clergy, deacons, brothers, women, and youth who represent our 12 Apostolic Regions across the US and International delegates.

It is my endeavor that all leaders understand his or her responsibility, and accountability, of effective leadership in all areas of ministry. The goal is to achieve effectiveness in ministry. Leaders will leave this Leadership Seminar empowered and well prepared in the work of the Lord.

With great expectancy, Lady Janice Sanders and I, look forward to seeing you at the 96th International Holy Convocation in Greensboro, North Carolina, July 22-26, 2015. The Holy Convocation will include Morning Glory Prayer, Powerful and Anointed High-Noon and Evening Worship Services, Powerful Preaching, Special Events, and workshops and sessions that will be available to all registered delegates, designed to grow leaders, individuals and congregations so that effective ministries are developed to the edification of the body of Christ.

I cannot do it by myself, you cannot do it by yourself, and we cannot do it ourselves! But together it is unbelievable what can be accomplished, when we work together!

Remember: There Remaineth Yet Very Much Land To Be Possessed, People Matter.

Apostle Robert L. Sanders, Sr., Presider

“ALL THESE BLESSINGS…”
Deuteronomy 28:1-14
Welcome to the 96th Annual Leadership Seminar!

It is with joy that I greet and welcome you to the 96th Annual Leadership Seminar. As we come together to coordinate all of our efforts in one common direction, we remain committed to equipping leaders to grow their ministries and churches. We need each of you to be successful as you pursue the kingdom outcomes that God has for you as a leader in these unique times!

This gathering of our leaders promises to be a time of encouragement, spiritual renewal, equipping, training and fellowship which will bless everyone in attendance. The workshop presenters represent a diverse mix of leadership styles, which challenges the attendees to grow in their relationship with the Lord. Each person truly brings a meaningful expression to the body of Christ.

The Lord is reminding us in this season of ministry that we are able to possess the land (Joshua 13:1). And because People Matter (Matthew 9:35-36), we pursue this mandate with passion.

Much Blessings,
Apostle James A. Maye

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 2015  1:15 PM – 2:30 PM
AUDIENCE: APOSTLES, BISHOPS, & PRESBYTERS
Pastoral Leadership
Effective pastoral leadership is AUTHORITATIVE. Effective pastoral leadership is SPIRITUAL. Effective pastoral leadership is SACRIFICIAL. A pastor must know what he is doing, where he is going and why. Otherwise, intelligent people will not have confidence in him and will not follow him very far. A good pastoral leader cannot be constantly passive and nondirective. If tasks are accomplished, some of necessity must assume some degree of leadership. On the other hand, a good pastoral leader does not always have to do everything himself and does not think that his way is always the correct way. A good pastoral leader is able to provide direction, supervision and still have an appreciation for group dynamics.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 2015  1:15 PM – 2:30 PM
AUDIENCE: IMD, IMDWG, IWC & SISTERHOOD
Rekindling the Fire: Leaders Protecting the Body, Soul, and Spirit from Ministry Burn Out (I Corinthians 6:19-20)
Without balance, we become burned out, ill, irritable, and unhappy. This workshop addresses some of the major health concerns for women associated with stress and burn out. Participants will learn techniques for rekindling the Spiritual fire with wisdom, temperance, and a healthy balance.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 2015  1:15 PM – 2:30 PM

Titus Two Teaching and Training
Teaching and training young women about Godly living is the primary responsibility of aged, seasoned women. This panel discussion is designed to strengthen relationships among generations of women and to preserve our Apostolic heritage. The dynamic panel of experienced women will share pearls of wisdom to equip and encourage younger women to continue steadfastly in the Apostle’s doctrine. Topics of discussion include: (1) ensuring proper training, mentoring, and succession planning for the next generation of women leaders; (2) destroying the cycle of hurting women hurting other women; (3) family life; (4) a SWOT analysis of COOLJC’s Women’s Ministries; and more.

African American Church Management Handbook
$16.00

“Floyd H. and Elaine McCollins Flake, and Edwin C. Reed have presented, in the African American Church Management Handbook, a practical manual written from the perspective of demonstrated excellence in a faith-based institution relating with success to the financial and governmental community. The authors provide excellent instructions on need for detailed management of the fiscal and administrative aspects of church management. The section on ‘Language of Business’ is a must-read for faith-based institutions seeking to develop a business plan. This book is a valuable resource for churches seeking to do sacred work in secular context.”—Michael A. Battle, President, Interdenominational Theological Center

Empowering Laity, Engaging Leaders
Tapping the Root for Ministry
$15.99

“Empowering Laity, Engaging Leaders” was used as a group study in our church. It engendered great discussion which led to concrete suggestions to our church to become more fruitful. The book is full of actual stories of church situations, and contains very valuable suggestions for how to develop and grow leadership. It’s greatest value lies in the emphasis on moving The Church to see ministry as the main goal, and to move church members outside the walls of the church building to make disciples for Jesus Christ.” — Gwen Patty (as posted on Amazon.com)

The Work of the Church
Getting the Job Done in Boards and Committees
$10.00

“If you work with committees or other types of groups, especially in the church, this is the book for you. There is a lot of good information for accomplishing goals when working with any group.”—Thamar D. Taylor (as posted on Amazon.com)
